2. Nomination

We offer options of nominating a beneficiary to receive your superannuation benefit in the event of your death:

- A valid binding nomination is a legal instruction, whereby the Trustee is legally obligated to pay your superannuation benefits according to the binding nomination.
 - A binding non-lapsing nomination does not expire (it will continue until further instructed).
 - A binding lapsing nomination is valid for three years after it was signed by the member. A new form must be signed and delivered to the Trustee if you wish to continue your nomination. If no valid nomination is made the Trustee will pay your benefit to a dependant(s) or your Legal Personal Representative. Your binding lapsing nomination will also cease to have effect if you subsequently marry, remarry or divorce.

To be effective, you must sign your binding nomination before two witnesses who are each at least 18 years old, and who are not nominated as a beneficiary.

- A non-binding nomination is simply your recommendation to the Trustee as to whom it may pay your superannuation benefit. It is not binding on the Trustee, and the Trustee will use discretion when determining who to pay benefits to. This type of nomination does not require witness signatures.

Nomination type: (only choose one) binding non-lapsing binding lapsing non-binding

IMPORTANT – before you complete the table below:

- If this nomination requires witnessing (see next page), please post this form as we need an original form – please do not send via email.
- To establish a valid nomination ensure no alterations are made on this form.
- Column D below (Share of death benefit) must total 100%.
- Before you make a nomination remember: You can nominate your legal personal representative or one or more of your dependants as defined under Superannuation Law.

If you have insufficient room to list all beneficiaries, please complete an additional Nomination of Beneficiary form and attach to this form.

3. Declaration

By making the nomination in this form:

- I understand that I must send this form to the Trustee, and that when this form is accepted by the Trustee it will replace and revoke any existing nominations. I understand that I can revoke, amend, or make a new beneficiary nomination by completing another form.
- Where I have made binding nominations, I direct the Trustee to distribute the benefit payable to me in the event of my death in accordance with this form. I understand this nomination will be binding on the Trustee only if validly completed. I agree that the Binding Benefit Nomination Rules in the trust deed apply to my nomination.
- Where I have made non-binding nominations, I recommend the Trustee exercise discretion to distribute the benefit payable to me in the event of my death by considering the beneficiaries named in this form. I understand this nomination is not binding on the Trustee.

Beneficiary nominations

To receive the death payment, your nomination must be one of the following categories at the date of your death:

- your spouse (legal, same sex or opposite sex de facto)
- your child (including an adopted, step or ex-nuptial child or a child of your spouse)
- in an interdependency relationship with you. An interdependency relationship exists between two people if they have a close personal relationship, live together and one or each of them provides the other with financial support, domestic support and personal care. If a close personal relationship exists but the other requirements for interdependency aren't satisfied because of a physical, intellectual or psychiatric disability, then there is also an interdependency relationship
- a person who is wholly or partially financially dependent on you
- your Legal Personal Representative (LPR). Your LPR is a person who is the executor of your will or an administrator of your estate.
